Name: _____

Summer Activities - Film Studies Portfolio

Complete all of the following tasks to create a Film Studies portfolio – this will be your first assessed unit of work, to be handed in to Ms Gold on Friday 13th September 2019.

Work should be presented as follows:

- Include this sheet with your name on it as a cover sheet
- Hand-written or typed (.12 font max)
- Your name on every sheet
- Tasks labelled
- Stapled together

Task 1

Write a 250 word mission statement explaining your interest in Film Studies as a subject and why you have taken the A-Level.

Task 2

Write about a film that has been important/influential to you. Explain the reasons why. 350-500 words.

Task 3

Watch a film that was made before 1955. Write a 500 word review

Task 4

Watch

- a) a British film
- b) a film that is not in the English language (subtitled).

Write 50 word reviews for each of the films (see www.50words.net for inspiration, but please don't plagiarise as your work will be checked!)

EXTENSION TASK

It's not essential to complete this! Anyone who does and provides photographic evidence will win a prize 😊
Go to an independent cinema to watch a film. They all do very cheap student tickets. Take photos as evidence.

Try any of the following:

- BFI on the Southbank www.bfi.org.uk/whats-on if you're 25 or under, you can get £3 tickets to any film 45 mins before the film starts
- Prince Charles Cinema in Leicester Square www.princecharlescinema.com tickets between £5-10
- Any Picturehouse cinema, including Greenwich and Stratford www.picturehouses.com Student tickets £7.50
- Any Curzon cinema, including Soho and Bloomsbury www.curzoncinemas.com ticket prices from £9-11
- Genesis Cinema in Mile End <https://genesiscinema.co.uk/GenesisCinema.dll/Home> student tickets £5.50-8
